Created by Natural Health magazine and sponsored by Skinade, the Natural Health International Beauty Awards celebrate the very best products, experts and retailers in the natural beauty industry.

This year's Awards will be presented at a special ceremony at the Natural & Organic Products Europe show, ExCel London, on Monday 18th April at 11.30am in the Natural Beauty & Spa Theatre. Promising to be a star-studded affair, the winners will collect their awards from key industry figures, including author and founder of Green & Blacks, Josephine Fairley, beauty guru Janey Lee Grace and green rock goddess Jo Wood.

All winning and highly commended products will feature in a special Natural Health International Beauty Awards 2016 supplement, on sale with the May issue of Natural Health magazine on 8th April.

They will also be displayed on the Natural Health stand (A32) at the Natural & Organic Products Europe show, so everyone can see exactly which products landed an accolade. In addition, a list of winners will be available online at www.naturalhealthmagazine.co.uk/awards

Judging and voting has now closed and you should have received your award notification via email. Please join us to help celebrate with the winners and finalists at ExCel, London on Monday 18th April 2016.

Don't forget to share your success by posting your award logo on Facebook, Twitter, your website or other advertising avenues – let the world know you're a winner!

We have also attached a press release which you can send to your local press to support your accolade.
